COMIC DESPERATION— The director cast and crew of current BP comedy engage in a lively discussion on how to entice more patrons to Blackwood 21, including a threat to shoot one of the actors.

Farndale Ladies Seek Bigger Audiences

Mrs. Reece and her intrepid Farndale Avenue troupe are determined get more folks in to see their latest venture, Murder at Checkmate Manor. The verdict from Adelaide Theatre Guide is in and is unequivocal: "This show is for people who want to have a fun time and enjoy themselves: and on that level, it succeeds one hundred per cent." ... Brian Godfrey

AGM Set for 23 February at Blackwood 21

The 2010 Blackwood Players AGM will take place on Tuesday 23 February beginning at 7:45pm in The Studio (front room) of Blackwood 21 (formerly Memorial Hall). A full slate of officers for the coming year will be elected. Only persons with paid-up 2010 memberships will be permitted to vote at this meeting (life members excepted). For more information contact, Kay Lindbergs at 8278 3021.

Two special items on the AGM agenda involve moving our AGM to June-July and thus coincide with the financial year as well and give the Treasurer more time for preparing and auditing the Financial Report. And changing the dates of the Membership Year to correspond with the new AGM date. Instead of lapsing every Dec. 31st, BP memberships would then end on June 30th.
